43rd Annual
Women's Retreat

Wendy Fitzgerald

Wendy Fitzgerald has the privilege of teaching at churches, retreats and conferences around the country, but Lake Aurora Women's Retreat is home. It was here, ten years ago, that she realized her love for teaching women. Little did she know then, that her passion for teaching God's truth to women would be the beginning of If Then Move, a ministry of teaching and products targeting the heart through story.

Wendy is the wife of one and mother of five. Combining her training in theater and her background in full-time ministry, Wendy pulls from her own experiences to authentically share God's Word.
